For Coroner,
FRANK W. HANCOCK
of Macoupin County.

HON. W. T. MOFFETT.

The district Republican convention did a good thing when it nominated Hon. W. T. Moffett for Senator. He is a man against whom not a single objection can be urged. Born in Illinois, he has resided in Macoupin county over a quarter of a century, and in all those years no man has ventured to breathe a word against his uprightness and integrity as a citizen. Among those who were in at the birth of the Republican party, he has remained steadfast to his principles, never wavering for a moment in his devotion to the interests of the organization which commended itself to his judgment and his patriotism. Possessing a good education, and being by nature fitted for a leader among his fellows, he has been frequently selected by his friends and neighbors for positions of honor and trust. For many years he was a member of the board of superior courts, and was for some time president of the board. In 1870 he was elected to represent this county in the legislature, and in 1872 was again chosen. His record in that body was marked by a degree of faithful devotion to the interests of the people which made him a prominent and useful member of the house. Not given to much speech-making, his industry, intelligence and good judgment were the qualities which made him conspicuous, and gave him a high standing among the better class of members. His opinion on all

DOWN WITH MONOPOLY

A man who looks able to be engaged in more full grown business, stands on a street corner in Chicago day after day calling out: "Here's your workingman's paper—Antislavery Socialist—laboring men's journal. 5 cents."

But a queer thing will happen to this man one of these days, if he does not look out, and which will annoy him. Some quarrelsome chap, with the eyes of common sense, will develop in his criticism, will slip up to that paper-seller and say: "Hello, my Communist friend, give me one of those papers."

"Five cents," the paper-seller will say.

"Five cents?" the other will exclaim,

"a la Marx, why you miserable scoundrel, look here, throwing, blasted persecutor!" you, with a hundred papers under your arm, and refuse to give me one!"

"Yes, but I'll pay for them," the poor street dealer will plead.

"And what do I care for that?" will be the reply. "I'm a Communist, I am, and it makes no difference whether it is a five-cent paper, a five-dollar bill, or a five-thousand-dollar bill, I'll take it, and divide you must, along with the rest of the rascals, scoundrels, shifty demagogues who demand pay for what they sell and protection for what they wish to keep."

The last speaker will then inaugurate a riot, and grabbing the paper monopoly will hold it in his selfish clutch that others wish to possess without paying for it, and will then proceed to divide the spoils, and divide the spoils, and divide the spoils, and divide the spoils, and divide the spoils, and divide the spoils, and

divide the spoils, and divide the spoils,

Strikes and Failures.

New York, Aug. 6.—This being the last day of the Congressional Labor Investigation Committee, the attendance was unusually large. George E. Mc-Neill, President of the International Workingmen's Union, residing in West

Somerville, Mass., was the first witness.

The whole difficulty, in his opinion, is the wage system of labor, or, in other words, that the wage system and the steam engine are contemporaneous, and that the productive power has exceeded the power of consumption. He favored an eight-hour law throughout the country.

Mr. Peck, of Danbury, Conn., followed. He thought that instead of lending hundreds of millions of dollars to banks, the Government should lend some few hundred millions free of interest to the workingman. He read a long petition to Congress asking the Government to lend any man $5,000 to build a house with, the amount to be paid back by installments.

Mr. Sellick was for abolishing the United States Senate, restricting the powers of Congress and the President, issuing $50 per capita, curtailing hours of labor to six, and allowing no one outside the Labor Bureau to employ laborers.

Mr. Kemp believed the cause of the depression was the war, the overissue of currency, extravagance caused by the short period of inflation, and a high protection tariff, all of which ought to be remedied.

Mr. Hewitt read the following questions, which the committee submits to the public:

The Congressional Committee earnestly requested the co-operation of the Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—The following resolutions were adopted at the Keeney meeting last night:

Whereas, the Republic, instituted for the avowed purpose of advancing and promoting the interests of the masses, has been reduced to a plutocracy that employs the Republican and Democratic parties in the perfidious work of establishing a monopoly and class privilege that sap the blood of the national industries so that it can be lapped up by the vices of capital, and Whereas, all laws enacted that are not in the direct interests of the producing and laboring classes are a crime against the spirit and propriety of this Republic, for which the legislator should be branded with the infamy of criminal improvidence; and

Whereas, infamous, if not criminal, class legislation has been heaped upon the industries of the nation by political parties until the burden has become a part of the masses, from which there is no escape, except by uniting the national interests of the producing and laboring people of all classes in such political action as will best give them their rightful control of the State and nation and legislation—privileges of which they have been plundered—and thereby restore this Government to the just and lofty purposes for which it was instituted, by the patriot fathers; therefore, be it Resolved, By the citizens of Boston, in Faneuil Hall assembled, that it is in the highest and truest interests of all the industrial classes in New England that they extend a hearty, cordial and united support to Dennis Kearney, the great and efficient apostle of the laboring classes of California, who comes among them for the noble purpose of uniting them, as he has united their brothers in his own State, in that political action which is necessary to re-

human principles for which it was instituted, so that the prosperity of this people may be recalled and firmly established.

the Boston Journal.

His relationship to the Queen debar-him from a career in the House of Comto accept a secondary place in the diplohas had to exercise on account of being
